

Contents

1. The internal auditing process
2. Explicit and implicit responsibilities of internal auditors
3. Organizing an internal auditing department
4. Appraising internal controls and Establishing a self-audit program
5. Administering an internal auditing department
6. Writing an audit manual : program and instructions
7. Auditing for profit through operational and management auditing
8. Writing work papers and controlling forms supplies
9. Preparing for and performing the internal audit
10. Completing the audit : final review and writing the audit report
11. Internal auditing of cash transactions
12. Auditing receivable transactions
13. Auditing inventory transactions
14. Auditing property transactions and other assets
15. Auditing of payable transactions
16. Auditing taxes, debt and equity accounts
17. Auditing personnel and payroll departments
18. Auditing a purchasing department
19. Auditing an engineering and a research department
20. Auditing a construction project
21. Auditing production operations and cost accounting
22. Auditing marketing : sales operations and couponing
23. Auditing advertising expenditures
24. Auditing distribution operations : traffics and export
25. Auditing data processing operations and library
26. Auditing a security department and related services
27. Auditing administrative offices and selected office services
28. Auditing a plant , distribution center or sales branch
29. Fraud, outside interests and special assignments
30. Audit tools : computer, statistical sampling and contract auditing
31. General comments and helpful hints